

Mr R.S.Wadhwa recieves "Batch of honour" award

Mr Wadhwa gets Ehrennadel "Badge of honour" from Deutsch-Indische Gesellschaft e.V. in Lübeck

The Indo-German Society (Deutsch-Indische Gesellschaft DIG) with their head office in Stuttgart has facilitated Mr Ranjit Singh Wadhwa and selected him for the award "Ehrennadel" (Badge of honour) at this year's annual convention of the "Deutsch-Indische Gesellschaft" held this year in Lübeck. Mr. Wadhwa is General Secretary of the Indo-German Society (Deutsch-Indische Gesellschaft) Bonn. Established in the year 1957, a fusion with Indo-German Society (Deutsch-Indische Gesellschaft) Köln took place in in the year 1964. Mr Wadhwa is also Vice President of the Indian Association Bonn since establishment.

Both the Associations DIG in Bonn and IAB work together and have 10-12 cultural events in a year. Mr Wadhwa has coordinated many Mega Events like 60th Independence Day of India, 60 Years of Indian Republic, Rythms of India, Spirits of India, Days of India, Pride of India and last year the mega blaster "Soul of India". Mr Wadhwa expresses his thanks for the help of the other members - else these Mega Events would have not have been possible.

Most certainly Mr Ranjit Singh Wadhwa has earned this "Badge of honour" for his untiring and innovative efforts to project Indian Culture and enhancing the Indo-German friendship.

Last but not least we all wish Mrs Wadhwa and his daughter Sumita a wonderful stay in Lübeck as Mr Wadhwa could not attend this graceful event due to prior engagements. The delegates representing 34 chapters of DIG are here along with the Consular General of India Mr Madan Lal Raigar to wish him all success in the future.
